Article Galaxy Search
A Better Way To Discover Scientific Literature

Experience faster research and deeper insights with Article Galaxy's powerful, AI-enhanced search, powered by Scite. To help researchers find the most relevant, trustworthy studies with greater speed and precision, we've upgraded Article Galaxy with advanced search and citation analysis tools. This smarter, more context-aware search experience fully integrates with core functionality to ensure users can acquire, re-use, and manage all of their literature.

Context-Rich Results For Better Research Discovery

In addition to searching for a DOI, PubMedID, or standard keywords from the title or abstract, Article Galaxy's improved search also allows you to search across citation statement excerpts from the full text.

Full-Text Citation Statement Excerpts

Find deep article insights directly from the full text of the paper, all powered by AI. Our advanced search technology identifies precise keyword matches within specific sections of full-text articles, providing deeper context beyond traditional abstract-only searches.
